Europe@Work makes it possible!

OBJECTIVES

“Europe@Work - Where the Ivory Tower meets Political Life” is an international teaching module for MA students of Political Science, Economics and selected students from other MA programs. The objective of the Jean Monnet Module is to bring about first-hand understanding of both academic and everyday practice of EU decision-making by offering students insights in “real life” political processes and the possibility to “experience” the EU as a vivid political system and to meet politicians, practitioners and stakeholders in a national capital as well as the European capital Brussels.

PUBLIC LECTURE

In the course of each Summer Term a public lecture is held. Content, date and place will be announced on:

www.wessels.uni-koeln.de

EU@WORK PROVIDES

- ★ A study trip to Brussels and Berlin or Paris to experience ‘real life’ political processes and to meet politicians, practitioners and stakeholders;
- ★ A preparatory lecture on the political system of the EU after the Treaty of Lisbon;
- ★ An accompanying E-learning unit;
- ★ A set of multidisciplinary research seminars;
- ★ Related public lectures.

REQUIREMENTS FOR PARTICIPATION

- ★ MA Student of Political Science and Economics (selected students from other MA programs may be eligible);
- ★ Major interest in EU politics and policies;
- ★ Participation in preparatory lecture, research seminar and study trip;
